OMAHA BEATS TULSA—TWO GAMES WITH ST. JOE TODAY

Vangilder Pitches Good Ball
But Mates Fail To Help

Oilers Unable to Take Advantage of Opportunities to Score.

DOUBLE PLAYS STOP TULSA

Four Two-ply Killings, One at Plate, Stop Threatened Scores.

By LARRY DAILEY.

Two Texas leaguers, which fell into a gloved ball to a weak hitting poor judgment on the base paths and four double plays cost Tulsa a ball game and a chance to gain a game on the league leading St. Joseph club, when Omaha beat the Oilers in a pitchers' battle yesterday, 2 to 1.

It was Tulsa's day to lose. The highlight of playing the 13th game with the Bourkes since the locals started beating the northerners with such charming consistency, during which time they won 12 straight, plus the above mentioned factors, was too much.

Bourkes Got the Breaks.

While the Bourkes played a fast and hard ball, more than the precision of this series, they did not detract from their victory, which is not detracting from their victory. All of the double plays made by the Bourkes came at times when Tulsa threatened to score, while two of their hits, Shingle's double in the eighth in particular, which went for two bases and on which he later scored the winning run, were the greatest opportunity to win in the fourth inning. With one out, Shingle reached first base when Tulsa fumbled his grounders. Dutch Nagle crashed a hit to the centerfield fence. With Shingle running third and Brown, Omaha centerfielder, just picking up the ball, Dultz, coaching at the hot corner, signaled for Joe to hold base. Nagle had just passed second base, was safe, third, when Nagle sought to make that station, was caught at the plate.

Tulsa's best opportunity to win after the fourth was in the eighth, when their only run was scored. Tierney, first up, doubled to center and went to third on O'Brien's out on an infield hit. Vangilder's single to right counted Tierney, but a bunt play retiring Vangilder and Burke ended the threatened rally.

Omaha Wins in Finals.

Omaha won the game in the final innings. In the eighth, Shingle first up, doubled to right. Barbee sacrificed, Cleveland to Shafter, Hall popped to Tierney, a poor play at best, singled to left, scoring Shingle.

Brown, leading off in the ninth was safe on first when O'Brien too anxious to field his bunt, fumbled low, tried out. Hemmingsway doubled to center. Brown scoring.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Vangilder pitched splendid ball, allowing only six hits, striking out eight and passing one.

Miller O'Brien, one of the game's newest, with the exception of a few innings in the outfield, caught a base camp, with his pep predominant as usual.

Hilt Jackson, scrappy manager of the Bourkes, was benched in the third inning by Umpire Day for protesting on the third called strike.

McLain's stop of Lee's grounder in the fourth inning not a big hand.

Gladson accepted three chances in three outs on an easy consecutive batters.

Fahr and Vangilder were heroes with the stick in addition to pitching yesterday ball. Fahr drove in one. Lee, first run, while Vangilder now counted Tulsa's score. Vangilder had a perfect day at bat, getting two singles and a sacrifice in three trips.

CAR SHORTAGE DELAYING
PAVING OF COUNTY ROADS

Shortage of men, freight cars, labor as the reason for the break in the highway system in Tulsa county. Reports reaching the offices of the county engineer last week show that while the labor shortage in the past two months has gradually disappeared, the inability of contractors to obtain men in which the state equal to the county is now making work on the highways far from normal.

Oklahoma Editor to Speak.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 6.—Walter M. Morrison, managing editor of the Daily Oklahoman, will be the chief speaker at the first annual banquet of the Oklahoma Chamber of Commerce, Saturday evening, Oct. 5. Several hundred business and professional men will attend the meeting, which will be held at the city auditorium. The banquet will be served in the new youth league of the First Methodist church.

G. A. R. Commander Hurt in Wreck.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 6.—G. A. R. Hurt, aged 87, commander of the Tulsa City G. A. R. post, suffered a severe head injury when a Ford car, which he was driving, was struck by a truck near White Oak, about 10 miles south of here, according to an unconfirmed report. He died in the hospital of heart trouble.

The car was entirely demolished.
